

CHERISH COLLECTION – Spring/Summer 2010

At its best, a great summer should be crammed full of simple pleasures and delightful surprises. The looming festive season also gives us reasons to cherish and acknowledge our inner desires and cherish our loved ones. Nature is at its best and gives rise to floral shades in every hue from pastel to vibrant hues. Neutrals are the pick of the season and Emma Page has used the floral influence to add that extra touch of colour. And, of course we can't ignore the hot, hot colour of red, the romance of a bejewelled heart or the statement of a solitaire 'diamond' ring! You will be delighted with The Emma Page Cherish Collection - just perfect for the festive season ahead.

Wildfire Necklace, Bracelet and earrings

When it comes to accessorising this season's neutrals, we say be on a red-hot colour-pop statement. This necklace, bracelet and earrings should do nicely.

The burnished gold and silver 42cm necklace is enhanced with seven asymmetrical shaped beads inlaid with vibrant red epoxy and two with filigree decoration. Both are dotted with a red shimmery bead 'eye' to give a dramatic effect that is highlighted beautifully with the season's neutral shades. RRP $80

Wildfire bracelet complements the look with a red bead stretch bracelet, joined by a burnished gold or silver tube. Stack them up together for maximum appeal. RRP $68

Wildfire earrings mirror the look of the necklace with one red epoxy layer adorned with a red shimmery bead 'eye'. Available in burnished Gold and Rhodium. RRP $32

Gardenia Pendant

Bring on the Flowers! Floral designs are always a favourite and 'Gardenia Pendant' will be no exception. Who wouldn't be delighted with this gorgeous matt flower pendant featuring an 8mm stunning faceted stellux crystal stone. The edge of the petals are also highlighted with an illusion setting and set with 10 small stellux crystal stones to make this pendant a classic luxe look for less. Available in Gold & Rhodium.
