Crown Ambassadors Sonny & Guat Hwa Ho from Malaysia

Open Rally

Sonny & Guat Hwa joined Amway in June 1976 with a fervent hope to settle their debts. Sonny was then working as a bank executive who was rich in banking knowledge but poor in lifestyle. During the early stages, challenges were rampant, many gave up but they strived on to qualify as Diamonds in 1980 mainly due to their steadfast belief in the company and faith in Amway co-founders Rich DeVos & Jay Van Andel. After quitting his bank job, they worked feverishly hard pursuing higher goals and eventually achieved Crown Ambassador in 2004.

Today the Amway business is a family affair with their son Marcel as an Executive Diamond and daughter Cheryl as Platinum.

Come along to hear their inspirational story from Sonny himself!
